Business Account Switch Kit

Thank you for your decision to move your relationship to National Bank of Middlebury.

When it comes to banking, we know you have many choices and are appreciative you chose us. We understand that switching banks is tiresome; that's why we are providing you with a few simple forms to help make the process easier.

Open a National Bank of Middlebury Small Business Advantage checking account

- When opening a business account, financial institutions are required to obtain information verifying the business as well as the individuals associated with the business. On page 2 we have provided you with a list of documents required based on the business type. Please have these available when connecting with Business Services or visiting one of our offices.

Switch your payments

- Switch ACH payments, payroll and merchant services transactions from your old account to your new account. On page 4 we have provided you with a form to help you through this process.

Begin using your new account

- Enroll in business digital banking to obtain access to all your account(s)

Close your old account

- Once you have received your new checks and debit card(s), stop using your old account and properly destroy your old checks and debit card(s).
- Allow time for all outstanding checks, ACH transactions and debit card purchases to clear.
- On page 5 complete this form and send to your previous financial institution to notify them you would like to close the account(s).
