Thank you for your decision to move your relationship to National Bank of Middlebury.

When it comes to banking, we know you have many choices and are appreciative you chose NBM. We understand that switching banks is tiresome; that's why we are providing you with a few simple forms to help make the process easier.

Open an National Bank of Middlebury checking account

- When opening an account, financial institutions are required to obtain information verifying the individual(s) associated with the account. On page 2 we have provided you with a list of required information.

Switch your payments

- Switch automatic debits/credits (ACH transactions) from your old account to your new account. On page 3 we have provided you with a form to help you through this process.

Begin using your new account

- Enroll in digital banking to obtain access to all your account(s)

Close your old account

- Once you have received your new checks and debit card(s), stop using your old account and properly destroy your old checks and debit card(s).
- Allow time for all outstanding checks, ACH transactions and debit card purchases to clear.
- On page 4 complete this form and send to your previous financial institution to notify them you would like to close the account(s).
